Joseph Orange Believed by Relatives to Have Been Beaten and Robbed.

POLICE PROBING CASE

Aged Man Found Unconscious Southwest Section-Valuables Said to Be Missing.

Mystery surrounds the death at Casual-ty Hospital last night of Joseph Orange, one of the oldest resident of the south-east section, who was found unconsclous on the street in front of 41 D street south-west at 4 o'clock yesterday morning. Relatives of the aged man believe he was beaten, robbed and left to die on the street. They said he left his home, 918 Eighth street southeast, at 9 o'clock Sunday night, saying he was going to a moving picture. When he left he carried moving picture. When he left he carried a roll of bills and wore a valuable gold watch and chain. When found by the police the money, watch and chain were gone, his sons say.

Coroner Nevitt and the police of the Fourth precinct are investigating. The coroner will hold an autopsy, and it is coroner will hold an autopsy, and it is likely that he will order an inquest because of the mysterious conditions surrounding the death.

The dead man, who was 70 years old, conducted a barber shop in the southeast since 1870. He is said to have been one of the best known and best liked men in the neighborhood. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

He is survived by his wife, a daughter, Miss Angeline Orange; a son August, who worked with his father, and another son, Gasper, a toolmaker in the Washington Navy Yard. Orange never regained consciousness from the time he was taken to the hospital yesterday morning.

The concert was given under the direction of the Omo Class of Brightwood Park M. E. Church, the Hamline edifice being used because of its enlarged seat-being used because of its enlarged seating capacity.

Mr. Rodeheaver played many selections on the trombone to the accompaniments of Mr. Matthews at the plano, his rendition of "The Rosary" being one of the numbers which drew him the universal applause of his audience. Mr. Matthews gave, in turn, several numbers on the plano as solos.

"TIZ" FOR ACHING, SORE, TIRED FEET

"Tiz" for Tender, Puffed-up, Burning, Calloused Feet and Corns.

People who are forced to stand on their feet all day know what sore, tender, at the losses inflicted in the fight at the corrals and in the streets, took to their heels. Erwin, after having made sure no armed men were secreted in the houses and fackals of the village, took the trail of the flying bandits and followed them for five hours, or till they had been disintegrated into parties of two and three, and had practically disappeared from the face of the earth.

People who are forced to stand on their feet all day know what sore, tender, sweatly, burning feet mean. They use "Tiz," and "Tiz," cures their feet right up. It keeps feet in perfect condition.
